Payroll Donation Options...

Per HR rules all PTO Vacation donations be a minimum of one (1) hour per pay period per fund. You will be able to donate a minimum of one (1) hour per fund every other pay period if you wish.

Specific Payroll Amount (for eligible employees)

Please deduct the amount entered (per pay period, or one-time, as noted below).

- ☐ Every pay period Donation Amount: $ _____
Start my recurring donation: ☐ Next pay period ☐ January 9, 2026
- ☐ One-time Only Donation Amount: $ _____
Take my one-time donation: ☐ Next pay period ☐ January 9, 2026

PTO Vacation Hours (for eligible employees)

Please deduct the number of PTO Vacation hours entered (per pay period or one-time as noted below).

- ☐ Every pay period Number of hours per pay period:
Start my recurring donation: ☐ Next pay period ☐ January 9, 2026
- ☐ Every other pay period Number of hours every other pay period:
Start my recurring donation: ☐ Next pay period ☐ January 9, 2026
- ☐ One time only Number of hours one time only:
Take my one time donation: ☐ Next pay period ☐ January 9, 2026

When making a one-time donation of a large number of vacation hours (10 or more) your deduction will be split over multiple pay periods to minimize any tax impact on your paycheck. The value of donated PTO hours is fully tax deductible and will be listed on your pay stub each pay period. The deadline for PTO donations is the Tuesday (10 days) prior to payday.

My signature indicates I understand that the information on this form will be entered in the Foundation database and used to administer this donation.

If payroll deduction is chosen: I authorize CHI Health St. Elizabeth/Nebraska Heart Foundation to withhold my deduction as indicated above. Payroll deductions will continue until I notify the Foundation to stop. (An email will be sent to you each year detailing any current continuing commitments you have on record.)
